The Consciousness of Abundance, Part 2*

~ Rooting Out the Belief in Lack and Limitation ~

Good evening, my Friends.

Well, I guess we are to hear The Consciousness of Abundance, Part II tonight.

What if wealth has nothing to do with what you believe it has?; nothing to with what we think of as success, of dollars, of material investments, of material prosperity?

In other words, Who told you that you are naked? (Genesis 3: 11) Who told you that the corporeal form of you needs clothes, a house, dollars, security in themselves? Who told you that you can lack something of completeness, can be in need of fulfillment? As Adam and Eve discovered, to believe so leads to troublesome experience.

Let us bring back to mind: "The heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day [the finished kingdom], God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day [blessed the finished kingdom], and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work." (Genesis 2:1-3)

God – the infinity of existence – is finished. All the formation which God created and made is finished, whole and complete, perfect, already manifested and demonstrated this instant of Now. "These are the generations of (the truth of, the principle of) the heavens and of the earth when they were (as they are) created (formed), in the day (in and as the is) that the Lord God made (that the Lord God is) the earth and the heavens, and every plant of the field before it was in the earth and every herb of the field before it grew. (Genesis 2:4-5)

All (stop and deeply think about this word) . . . all is the seventh day, the finished kingdom, the heavens and the earth, which means spirit and its infinite, omnipresent form, which are one, not different or separate.

As always with truth (the evidence of truth, the awakening into our true identity), our job is to empty ourselves of belief so that the truth that is is revealed, rather than fill ourselves with truth “so that” truth is brought forth. Truth is already brought forth. Truth is already evident. Truth is already here. All the good you could possibly want and need plus an infinity more than you could ever sense you need is here where you are right now, fully real, visible and freely available to your immediate experience in the most practical way.

Only belief hides wholeness and completeness from our experience. Empty ourselves of belief, and fulfillment is visible and tangible at our every step. Our vision has become clear instead of foggy, and we see all that is.

Now, our work, when it comes to the consciousness of abundance, is to empty ourselves of all that is believed to be needed, all that we believe must happen, all that is believed to be involved in the presence of abundance, the reality of wealth in our hour by hour tangible experience.

Think. Is it not true that when we read statements of truth, especially regarding wealth, that we believe something different will take place in our experience? We believe that orders for our product, our service, our treatment, our teaching will come about, that a new and fulfilling customer will come to our place of business and give us an unexpectedly large order that contains enough margin in it to enable us to meet the financial demands we’re presented with? Or that a gift of money will somehow, from an unexpected person or source, come our way?; that a donation will be made, that an unexpected debt will be paid, that unexpected good fortune will somehow come our way, and hopefully in the next few days, enough for us to meet the financial demands of the day? Maybe a relative we didn't know we had will appear with a gift of money which just happens to be enough to meet our current financial demands; or an investment property is given to us out of the clear blue sky, and we’re able to meet our demands by securing a loan against the property, or by selling it.

We believe that something human or material has to take place in order that our monetary responsibilities can be met with newly acquired monies.

Well, how has this belief worked for you? It didn’t work for me. I studied “supply” so long and thoroughly I could probably recite all the books by heart, if you asked me to. But did all my acquired knowledge actually bring me the needed supply? Did it fulfill the demands made on me month by month? Not in the slightest. I managed to just scrape through each month, sometimes a little easier, sometimes harder, sometimes so close to the bone that it filled me with fear, for the good part of twenty years. But it was all by my extreme mental and material effort. Did that mental, material effort have anything to do with God? Of course not. Did it have anything to do with the realization of the infinity of God (fulfillment of all of life) embodied within us all? Of course not. Was it a resting in the finished kingdom of spiritual being witnessing the fulfillment of wealth at every occasion? Of course not. It was the very opposite of resting in and beholding the finished kingdom at work. Well, that was my state of awareness in those early years; it is a state or period we all, by degree, come through.

Only God Is

Only God is, and God is spirit and truth. (John 4:24) God – spirit and truth – is the finished heaven and earth – the finished formation, the objective experience we have at this level of awareness. God is the inner and the outer. The only God and the only earth, the only person and thing, the only object is spirit and truth, which is forever whole and complete. All is the image and likeness of wholeness and completeness, God, spirit, truth. This is the only being, the only mind, the only body, the only form and activity, the only amount and condition.

You are and have the finished kingdom of “both” your spiritual being (heaven) and your objective spiritual sense or experience (earth and all the host of them). None other exists. You are that very presence, and you have it as your entire here-and-now universal form. When you observe or experience what seems to be a lack money, a lack of opportunity, a lack of prosperity, a lack of here and now objective fulfillment, recognize that that picture is a lie of belief, and immediately convert that lie into the realization of spirit and truth.

Immediately switch your mind back to Genesis 2: 1-5 and see if the picture matches the truth we hear in this scripture. The heavens and the earth and all the host of them are finished, blessed and sanctified by God. Now, does the appearance (the picture) of lack or limitation match this truth? No. So it must be and is a lie. Therefore, ignore the lie and its appearance and immerse yourself in the spirit and truth of the finished heavens and earth and all the host of them.

Remember, the finished kingdom is blessed and sanctified by God. God is rested in the seventh day, in the finished kingdom, from all his work which God created and made – which good (fulfillment) created and made.

Lack does not exist, limitation does not exist. Not one condition or circumstance in heaven or earth is unfulfilled. None of corporeality is in need of clothes, none lacks even one grain of its completeness, none is in need of fulfillment. All the wealth, all the money, all clients, customers, patients, students, friends are here with you and for you this instant.

Everything of corporeal experience is already and forever fulfilled because the corporeal, the outer sense, is not separate and different from God, but is itself just as much God as the inner. "When you make the two into one, and when you make the inner like the outer and the outer like the inner and the upper like the lower . . . then you will enter [tangibly see and have] the kingdom." (Gospel of Thomas, Saying 22) Make all one and omnipresent, for no other reality exists.

Realize the same truth about the life and health of the body. All that is needed for the health and vitality, the youthfulness, the purpose, the strength of the body is present right now, is active right now, is fulfilled right now. The infinity and eternity of life itself is the very substance, form, activity and visibility of the body – the one God body objectively sensed as your body. This being true, your body has the one quality and condition of God and cannot have, be or show forth any different quality or condition. Do you see? Know this truth, rest in it, allow it to be what your body is and how it behaves, and you will experience it every day of eternity.

All that is needed for wondrous, wise, intelligent, and purposeful love, whether between two, or within families, or as neighbors, colleagues, suppliers, customers, or students is present, operative, and self-fulfilled here and now. All purpose and activity is fulfilled. Not one being walks the earth without the fullness of purpose being completely real and evident as and to spiritual consciousness that all is.

Fulfillment is, but are we aware of it? Are we aware of fulfillment as being the only reality, visibly and tangibly evident? Or are we attempting to see and have fulfillment with human, physical, material awareness? If we attempt to gain God realization to fulfill our human, physical and material senses, we fail. When we realize God as and for God as being the one already existent all-of-all, we succeed and are then eternally free.

God is the finished heavens and earth and every form of them, every plant and herb of the field (every substance and form and food of experience) before it springs up in our awareness, before we arrive at each step, before we are aware of every next moment.

All wealth, health, love, harmony, peace, purpose – all of fulfillment – is finished in the heavens and the earth and only has to be realized, only has to be understood, only has to be accepted and trusted as being present and finished, and only has to be rested in in order to be felt, seen, and tangibly ours.

“Ye are gods.” (Psalm 82:6; John 10: 34) Well, if God itself is rested in the seventh day because all the work is finished in the heavens and the earth, then this is exactly what we are, and what we are to do, because we are the gods of our finished heaven and earth. All is the finished kingdom, therefore all that is required is resting in it to witness it – resting and beholding the finished work, the finished presence, the finished reality within and without.

Does the belief in humanity and materiality being real in themselves correspond with Genesis 2:1-5 – the heavens and the earth and all the host of them are finished? The heavens and the earth and all they constitute are spirit, not matter. So does the belief in humanity and materiality have any truth to them? No. Does the belief in something human or material needing to take place in order for supply to come to me in the form of dollars to meet financial demands have any truth? No.

I knew this intellectually but it hadn't yet sunk to the deeper level of spirit and soul in me. So I used to study every lesson on supply that I could find, meditate with it, try to gain the consciousness of it – the oneness and omnipresence of God, which is supply, forever fulfilled – then sit in silence feeling the peace within, and then get up and wait around humanly and materially waiting for the money to come.

It never came. Why? Who told you that you are naked? That is why. Who told you that the corporeal form needs clothes, needs money, needs success? Who told you you can be in lack or limitation, can be in need of fulfillment? Who told you? Belief told you, not God.

God told us – God is – the very opposite. I am. I am all of all. I am the finished heavens and the earth – the inner and the outer – and all they constitute. Heaven and the earth are one, are I, consciousness, the very same one substance, one presence, one life; the very same whole and complete existence – not only finished, but so very divinely finished that I, God, am rested, and have blessed and sanctified the entirety of existence. I am visible to sense as individual being, therefore it is you that I have blessed and sanctified. It is your consciousness, your life, your entire universe within and without. Every grain of the infinity of you is finished, fulfilled, blessed and sanctified.

All that you are and have is whole and complete and exists, in all its fulfillment, before you become aware of it. Wherever you look, wherever you go, whatever you can imagine, there I am. Nothing exists except I, and I am the finished heavens and earth, blessed and sanctified. You have only ever been required to rest in me, rest in the finished heaven and earth of you. Rest, and bear witness to the presence of I being the fulfillment of all in your experience.

The Practice

The practice of the presence of God is the one way of release from false experience. Only one way exists because only God exists, and God is one. Oneness is the one way. The Master explained it as the straight and narrow path. "Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." (Matthew 7:14) It is popular these days to hear the suggestion that there are an infinite number of ways to God. I have not heard that from the Master. I have heard him say that the gate is straight and the way is narrow, and few there are that can muster the discipline to get through that straight gate and walk the narrow way. The lack of fruit we witness around the world suggests that it is still true today.

So let us call it the practice instead of a practice. The practice is this. Every time a lack appears to exist in your life, immediately recognize it as a lie of belief and the appearance of that lie. Then convert it. Immediately switch back to Genesis 2:1-5, and see if the picture of lack fits into truth.

It cannot be clearer: you and your entire earth are finished, whole and complete in the most real and practical way; present as all fulfilling form, no matter what that form is; no matter what material condition appears to present itself. All is God, therefore all is fulfilled even before we become aware of it, or before a picture of demand presents itself to us?

Read this scripture over and over again. Immerse yourself in its profound and immediately releasing truth. Fill your mind with it. Keep your mind filled with God. Love God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength.

Reading and realizing the truth of this scripture is loving God. The heavens and the earth are finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day, the finished kingdom, God ended his work which he has made; and he is rested on the seventh day from all his work which he has made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he has rested from all his work which God created and made.

When we catch even a glimpse of the truth that God has created (God is) every breath and step of us, and that because God is the finished kingdom, every breath and step of us is the finished kingdom of individual you and me, the already present fulfillment of individual experience, we are free.

But remember, we are spiritual not human, not material, so it is only when we withdraw our entire sensory faculty from human and material appearance, and immerse ourselves in the spiritual, that we truly understand and can live by the finished kingdom.

“These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created.” These are the generations of you and your experience “when you were created” – as your very being. You do not exist as an unfinished kingdom. You exist as the finished kingdom of heaven and earth “in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, and every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew.”

As we immerse ourselves in this truth and then revisit all the beautiful truth statements about wealth, abundance, prosperity, we understand them; we have spiritual discernment, and then we can rest in them as being the finished kingdom of is, rather than as promises that will become true, that will somehow spark the activity of matter or humanity so that in one way or another our material dollars reach us in time to meet our material needs.

Such continued belief is completely out of truth and leaves us unable to witness the abundant supply we inherently are and have. We remain in sensed lack and limitation while standing in the midst of infinite abundance! We remain having to make extreme mental and sometimes physical effort. We work mentally and physically sixteen, eighteen hours a day just to survive. Not one bit of truth exists in that picture.

Immerse yourself in this truth to make sure that you are empty of belief in the appearance of lack and want, and in the belief that something material or human has to take place in order that you have sufficient money to meet your financial responsibilities. Supply is, abundance is, prosperity is, success is – even as objectively sensed form – this instant of now.

Immerse yourself in scripture, this scripture and every other scripture you can find that illustrates the truth of the ever-present abundance that you are and have as your very I or consciousness within and without. Then, put those scriptures down and contemplate their meanings yourself.

The activity of contemplating truth ourselves rather than only or mainly reading or listening to truth is our most powerful and fruitful “use” of consciousness. It wakes us up far quicker than reading or listening. The degree of our effort reveals itself as the degree of fruitage in our experience.

(Note: a marvelous book to work with to deepen spiritual realization is The Way of Awakening.*)

This is why it is so important to regularly, every day, find a quiet place away from family and business, a place quiet place where you will be undisturbed, turn off your phone and computer, and immerse yourself in truth. Be alone with God.

It is remarkable to me how even some long-term students cannot be without their phones and emails. As soon as their phone or email pings they jump out of meditation to attend to incoming calls or messages. Would they not turn off their phones and emails if sitting with the Master? Would they interrupt precious time with the Master to answer a phone or check an email? Of course not. So why dishonor themselves in this way? Consciousness is the Master. We must honor it as such.

Give yourself the gift of alone time, time to contemplate the truth and then time in silence to listen to and feel the truth. Listen to the Master. Listen to the God consciousness that you are. Your consciousness is the Master.

Your consciousness is God, forever imparting to you the absolute fulfillment of every step you take, every moment of your experience. Lift yourself up into a receptive attitude by contemplating truth (as we are doing here). Deny the lie; correct it in your own mind by turning straight to the straight and narrow truth.

Spend many wondrous hours with Genesis 2:1-5, and then, by all means, once you have filled yourself with it to the point of practical realization, and once you feel it living you (this is the key) then, by all means, read or listen to other statements or verses of truth. But do not rush from statement to statement or verse to verse in a frantic search for demonstrable truth. You already are and have the infinity of manifested and demonstrated truth. Depth of realization is the key, not filling the shallows of awareness with scores of different truths.

Be rid of the belief that the tangibility of supply is connected to or dependent on human or material activity – of the movement of dollars from a person or organization to you via some form of material means. Nothing is needed; all the supply of infinity is already right where you are.

Read or listen to a little truth, then stop and contemplate for a few minutes, then read or listen a little more, then stop and contemplate some more. When you feel that you have contemplated enough for the moment, put the book or audio away and be still, and listen to or feel the presence and activity of consciousness within.

Consciousness is forever imparting the infinity of fulfillment to you at and as your level of understanding. You can be a farmer in the field or a scientist in the laboratory. It matters not. As long as you are turned to God, and spiritually receptive, the every form of fulfilled wealth, health, love, peace, harmony and happiness is visibly and tangibly present at and as your level of apprehension.

Every plant and herb of the field of consciousness is tangibly present before you need it, every amount of wealth and resource, every form and activity of health, of love, of harmony, of peace is present, visible and tangible before you need it, every ounce of knowledge, wisdom, and direction is present and tangible before you need it. And if you find yourself in the middle of a stormy situation or condition which seems, to all appearance, to be overwhelming, even impossible to overcome, fear not. It is never too late. Whatever forms of good are needed are unconditionally yours. There is no price to pay. They are already present, visible and tangible right where you are. Look up, that is all; stay in spiritual awareness, rested and receptive, and let spirit see for you. Your eyes will quickly be opened and you will behold every form of tangible fulfillment the situation needs.

The need is already fulfilled, and eternally so. When you reach the point of being truly ready to withdraw from the material, to come in here to truth, to immerse yourself in truth and to sit silently witnessing – feeling – the presence and activity of God imparting itself to you within, you evidence it.

The time of evidenced God, fulfillment, is now. God is, now; and God is forever visible and tangible to its own consciousness. In other words, no situation you ever face is too far gone, too late, to heal or to witness fully resolved and freed. Even if all the medics on earth tell you that you have only one hour left, it is not too late to refuse the lie, turn to truth, fill yourself with truth until that lie is out of your system, and then sit in silence and listen to the fully formed consciousness that you and all in your world is – the consciousness of fulfillment, the finished kingdom of heaven and earth existing as you – and to witness every discord, disease, lack or limitation dissipate to reveal fulfillment and freedom.

Never believe it is too late. That itself is the biggest lie. It does not matter if you are threatened with bankruptcy, or if the bailiff is knocking at your door; it does not matter if your family seems to be irreparably discordant, if your home is under one sort of threat or another, if your career or business seems to be at an end, or if your whole world seems to be turned upside down. It is never too late to reject the lie, turn to truth, immerse yourself in truth, contemplate the truth, then sit empty and silent letting truth itself (consciousness itself) reveal the harmony and fulfillment that is the one actual reality and presence to you at your very level of apprehension.

Then, when you get up from your silence, from feeling the presence and activity of God within, the visible forms of fulfillment are quickly witnessed. Only make sure that you do not get redrawn into the trap of believing the material appearance. The appearance may remain the same for an hour or for a few hours, but the presence and activity of truth is dispelling the illusion within you from the instant of your feeling it within. Stand still, and behold the dispelling of false sense, and all will quickly be revealed as fulfilled and free. "Stand ye still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will show to you this day."

(Exodus 14:13)

Your job and mine is to continually reject appearance in itself. It is hard work to begin with but it gets easier until it becomes our natural way of being. It is living spiritually. It is letting God live us instead of belief tempting us to struggle and labor for our good. Reject every appearance as being reality in itself, including the subtle belief in something needing to take place in order for your fulfillment to be experienced, for your healing, for your prosperity, for your love to be tangibly evident.

If we stay trapped in belief, we cannot experience God. We cannot experience the abundance of fruits that are in the field before we become aware of needing them, the plants and herbs that fill the fields to overflowing, finished and complete, fully grown, fully evident before we become aware of needing them.

Make sure that you work deeply with these truths to completely empty yourself of the entire belief in and attachment to materiality. Your good is present this instant. All the abundance you could ever need is present now. It is limitless, it is inexhaustible. If ten thousand people in need of food came to your front door today, you can feed them as long as you are being the consciousness of omnipresent infinity within and without.

But if you continue to separate and divide, believe that ten thousand hungry human people need ten thousand servings of material food, and that your contemplation of God, and your sitting in silence listening for infinity will somehow result in a “connection” being made and material food arriving from somebody’s act of love and generosity, you’ll never see that food, and nor will the hungry people.

If you can reject the entire human and material scene and its seemingly mechanical avenues of fulfillment, and totally immerse yourself in the infinity and omnipresence of spirit, realizing that fulfillment is and has eternally existed in all its finished, visible form before it is in the field – before we become aware of a need, before it presents itself to us as a seeming need; if you can realize that the seeming need and its instant fulfillment are one and the same presence (God), then never will you separate and divide and attempt to bring fulfillment to that belief. All is forever fulfilled because all is forever God.

Never separate and divide. Stay in and as one, forever fulfilled. It is by the degree that you stay in the consciousness of one and rest there as a god, a god of the finished heavens and earth and all the host of them, that you are being the consciousness of fulfillment. Do you see? Then every demand that presents itself to you is quickly and tangibly witnessed as the fulfillment it is.

You have to be fulfillment in order to see it. If anything of separation and division is left in us it will remain unfulfilled in our experience. Hear that very deeply. If anything of separation and division is left in us it will remain unfulfilled in our experience because our experience is a mirror image of our state of consciousness.

If we are the consciousness of un-fulfillment (separation and division) then we experience un-fulfillment. But the moment we are the consciousness of fulfillment (oneness) we are the finished heavens and earth and all the host of them, which are blessed and sanctified by God – visible and tangible to sense.

When we realize that we are the gods of our worlds, and we maintain ourselves in the consciousness of fulfillment despite appearance, then we are the cause of fulfillment to every appearance. We are appearance fixers. We are that presence on earth that dispels the fog of illusion to reveal the fulfillment of truth.

All that constitutes the earth (objective sense) is eternally fulfilled and tangibly formed before it is in the field of sense (before sense detects it). “The earth is the Lord’s, and the fullness thereof . . . The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord . . . Oh Lord, how manifold are thy works!; the earth is full of thy riches.” (Psalms 24:1; 33:50; 104:24; 1 Corinthians 10:26; 28)

Everything of your next hour, your tomorrow and your year is already finished and fulfilled. When you are being what fulfillment is – when you are being the consciousness of God, of one – it shines through the avenue of mind revealing itself as fulfilled (true) form. Just as sunlight shines through the tree-lined avenues of the countryside revealing the glory of life, form, and color, so the consciousness of fulfillment shines through the avenues of mind revealing the infinite and abundant good of God.

And so, when a sense of need or demand is presented to us and we are able to reject it, just like that, as a false appearance of belief (and if we cannot yet reject it on the spot, then we turn to truth, fill ourselves with and lift our awareness into truth, contemplate that truth until we feel the release from the picture), and then rest in the silence of the finished kingdom, fulfillment imparts itself within us. Then, as we stay in and as the consciousness of oneness without a single sense of unfulfilled person, thing or condition in us, we quickly see the fulfillment of the picture. We see the need fulfilled, the healing taken place, the hungry fed, the bills paid; we see boundless opportunity come to our front door, and all the resources to fund every opportunity, right where we are.

Examine the beliefs you hold concerning wealth, prosperity, supply. Shine a light on the multitude of believed human and material activities required in order for sufficient amounts of money to make its way to you to meet each demand. There are a hundred beliefs around every financial condition. Identify each and every one and say “no” to them. Realize that all that infinity is and has exists fully tangible and visible right where you are this instant; that the I of you you is and already has all the supply you could ever need to instantly fulfill every demand.

Reach back into scripture and do your work, and most importantly, maintain the consciousness of abundance. The work of rooting out belief and maintaining the consciousness of abundance is a moment by moment work. It’s a discipline. It’s staying on the straight and narrow path. And remember what the Master told us about the straight and narrow path. The harvest is rich, the fruits are abundant, and are already white for harvest. Indeed they are. The effort is well rewarded.

The finished kingdom of heaven and earth are you and your every earthly experience – infinite and omnipresent as your every fulfillment before your awareness of it. Do the work, my friends. It is the work of forever releasing yourself from the bondage of material lack and limitation, of stepping into the freedom of infinity and omnipresence here on earth.

Not only your freedom, of course, but it is the feeding of the people, feeding the earth with truth, with the consciousness of abundance, the forms, the harmony, the peace of freedom, of life, of justice, of equality. It is saving and comforting those who are not yet aware of their truth. It is rescuing people from their struggles and from their pain. It is releasing them from the prison of belief.

This is a work far greater than we can realize, but we witness its fruits. "By their fruits ye shall know them." By our consciousness of abundance, by our consciousness of the finished heaven and earth evidencing itself through us we are able to feed the world, we are able to be the light of the world, the health, the supply, the harmony, the freedom of the world.

And so let us devote ourselves to this wondrous work of realizing our truth and baring witness to its perfectly evidence everywhere we go, not only for us but for all in our consciousness.

Let us sit for a couple of minutes together.

Thank you, thank you, my friends,

Paul

P.S. The Consciousness of Abundance, Part 2* is a self-complete message. Curious and hungry nature will make you want Part 1 too, but there is no need for it. I chose this transcript as a complete and clarifying message. Work, meditate, and be silent with this message and you will bear witness to rich fruits of abundance in every category of life.
